

Christina B. Kingham

10 Overdsomething road
Rye, NY 10580
(914) 555-5555
ckingham@nomail.com

EDUCATION

Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, NY
Master of Arts: English Education-Secondary, expected July, 2004.

- New York State and City certified (complete in July.)
- Class representative for New Student Orientation.

Georgetown University, Washington, DC
Bachelor of Arts: English, May, 2000.

- Literature concentration with significant coursework in Creative Writing and Film Studies.

National University of Ireland, Galway, Ireland
Study Abroad Program, Spring Semester, 1999

TEACHING AND RELATED EXPERIENCE

White Plains High School, White Plains, NY

9th Grade English: Student Teacher, February-June, 2004

- Create and teach daily lesson plans for 9th Grade Regents Preparation Course and 9th Grade Honors English Course.
- Curriculum includes: To Kill a Mockingbird, A Raisin In the Sun, A Midsummer Nights' Dream, Of Mice and Men, and a unit of poetry.
- Specialize in creating lessons geared towards multiple learning styles which may include film, art and music.

Manuel Rivera Middle School, PS/MS 279, Bronx, NY

8th Grade English: Student Teacher, September-December, 2003

- Taught and co-taught numerous lessons for two 8th grade English courses.
- Curriculum included reading and writing workshop units and ELA test preparation.
- Successfully raised funds to purchase 300 books for use in three 8th grade classroom libraries.

The Trevor Day School, New York, NY

Second Grade Assistant Teacher, August-June, 2003

- Created and taught various lessons, including reading and writing workshops.
- After school soccer coach.

American Yacht Club, Rye, NY

Director of Summer Camp/ Assistant Pool Director, 1994-1999

- Supervised camp instructor staff and sixty children.

ADDITIONAL PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

LAHA Films, New York, NY

Assistant, February, 2001-April, 2002

- Assistant to feature film director Lasse Hallström (My Life as a Dog, What's Eating Gilbert Grape, Cider House Rules, and Chocolat.)
- Coordinated schedules, press, and assisted with the evaluation of script and book submissions.

NBC Olympic Division, Sydney, Australia

Media Village Coordinator, August-October, 2000

- Coordinated production activities for NBC film crew and sponsors.

The Old York Foundation, New York, NY

Archivist, June-August, 2000

- Assisted in the organization of The Seymour Durst Collection, a major historical book collection donated to the CUNY graduate library, New York.

SKILLS

- Advanced Computer Literacy: PC and MAC, Word Perfect, Excel, PowerPoint, Digital Photography, Photoshop, film editing programs.
- Visual Arts: Film and Photography.
- Dance and Drama: Experience with theater, dance and choreography.
- Sports: Experience as soccer and swim coach.

PERSONAL INTERESTS

- Travel: Extensive travel in Australia, Europe, and South East Asia.
- Community Service: Volunteer Emergency Medical Technician, Swim Across America (benefiting cancer research).
- Other: Poetry, Travel Writing, Photography, Film Studies, Soccer.